

CONTENTS

Foreword	11
Introduction	13
Alter—Rather than Abandon—Traditions	18
Anticipate the Holidays	20
Appreciate the Grief Styles and Decisions of Others	22
Ask Your Church for Help	24
Be Alert to the Culture’s Obsession with Excitement	26
Befriend Your Grief	28
Befuddle Someone	30
Carolize Your Season	32
Celebrate Sensitive	36
Consider the Needs of Everyone	38
Create New Traditions	40
Create Ornaments or Decorations That Symbolize Your Loved One and Eternal Life	42
Cry If You Want To	44
Define Your Boundaries	46
Do What You Need to Do	48
Donate to Your Church or a Charity in Honor of Your Loved One	50
Do Not Fast-Forward to January 5	52
Forgive Those You Believe Are Responsible for the Death	54
Give Your Grief Its Voice	56
Give Yourself Permission to Say, “No,” or “I’ll Pass”	58
Guard Your Heart	60
Invite God’s Help	62
Journal Your Grief	64
Keep the Future in Mind	66
Let Others In on Your Grief	68
Make Gratitude	70
Minimize the Seasonal Stressors	72

Miss the Invitations to Parties and Other Social Events	74
Nap	76
Network with Other Grievors	78
Nurture Yourself	80
Observe a Quiet Holy Day	82
Organize Your Living Environment	84
Prepare	86
Read	88
Remain Open to Seasonal Surprises	90
Remember Realistically	92
Resist the Temptation to Make It Up to Others for What They've Been Through	94
Rethink Your Holiday Shopping Habits	96
Say Your Loved One's Name	98
Toast Your Loved One	100
Try Events	102
Unplug the Christmas Mania	104
Use Some of Your Seasonal Decorations	106
Visit the Cemetery or Scattering Ground	108
Volunteer at a Social Service Agency	110
Vote Your Choices	112
Watch Children	114
Watch Out for Numbing Influences	116
Weigh Any Criticism of Your Grief Style and Holiday Decisions	118
Worship	120
Write a Year-End Letter to Your Deceased Loved One	122
"Yes" Invitations That Feel Right	124
"Zestize" Your Season	126
How to Pray This Holiday Season	128
Conclusion	130
Memories of My Loved One	133
Appendix	137
Works Cited	139
About the Author	142